

GOV. EDWARDS of New Jersey is a Democrat who is not afraid to talk Democracy.

HYDE and his ninety-nine-year chaffer—I'm going to give the episode in full, one of these days.

"FATTY ARBUCKLE has faded from the screen, and I don't regret it—though the manner of his going is deplorable.

LET no life-term convict despair. A chaffer's place may be awaiting him with the open air and a good time attending.

OUR PRESIDENT is a brave man—else he would not have had the temerity to compliment the present Congress on its achievements. No one else has had the courage to do so.

IT is announced that Governor Hyde will convene the Legislature in special session about November 1st to enact legislation necessary to issue bonds for the payment of the soldier bonus voted at the election in August.

GOV. HYDE said, pending the election, that he wanted to "clean up Kansas City." Well, he seems to have cleaned it of some of its law-abiding police, even though the ex-convict ranks had to be belayed upon to make up the deficit. In consequence, I am told that Kansas City is the worst hell-hole in the broad and boundless West to-day.

NAT GOLDSTEIN, politician, poker player and recipient of $2500 of the Lowden slush fund—which he returned later, however—is to be appointed postmaster of St. Louis when the term of the Democratic incumbent of that office expires next January. And Mr. Goldstein will be indebted for the office to that peerless Christian gentleman and erstwhile Sunday School superintendent, Selden P. Spencer.

IT is announced that Gov. Hyde will appoint his brother Insurance Commissioner—one of the best offices the Governor has to bestow. This Governor Hyde is the same fellow that paraded over the state a year ago talking of the peanut politics of the Missouri Democracy. But then Scripture says that "he that provideth not for his own household is worse than an infidel," or words to that effect.

THIS excerpt from a letter written by Richard Adams to the Post-Dispatch commends itself to all true, unprejudiced Americans:

"The King is dead. Long live the King." But just a word for the "dead King" and a tip to the living: Oh, you knackers of the past administration who saw the mote in your leader's eye then, what think you now of the beam in the present regime's? For eight long years—one of the most crucial periods in our history—Woodrow Wilson devoted all the energy of his body and the forces of his masterful mind to guide this country through its perilous siege, and brought the ship safely to shore, but at the sacrifice of his own personal welfare; for what constitution, however rugged—which his was not—could stand up firm under all that pressure? When Wilson's health broke by too strenuous devotion to duty, capital was made out of it by pigmy minds, intellects too narrow and untrained to recognize greatness even when thrust before them. No fear for the present administration losing health at its present gait—five months in office, five months vacation. And now that the small fish are in control, what is the situation in this country today? Thousands and thousands of men and women unemployed—without food, shelter and clothes, and the head of the Government, instead of getting down to brass tacks and facing the problems of the nation, trying to solve them and offering a remedy for this menace of idleness, is spending his time Mayflowering around, unmindful of the salient points now at stake. Knockers of the past, take out your hatchets and hew down the shallowness of this administration. Use those hatchets to build up a good, solid administration—an administration which will work for the contentment and prosperity of these United States."

Myself and wife and Ray Stamp and wife attended church at Iron Mountain chapel, near the Roberts' School House. The Presbyterians have a beautiful little church there, built in 1917. It has a basement and is provided with a heating plant. Rev. R. W. Stanfield of Ironton preached at 11 o'clock. The Presbytery is in session there and will continue until Thursday. Twenty preachers are expected to attend. They have 45 in the Sunday School and 41 members. We made the drive in a car in ten minutes. In old times it would have taken an hour.

The bridges are all completed to Annapolis and in use. Judges Reese and Sutton have certainly done a good job for which we are very thankful.

Business is picking up at Des Arc. I saw fifteen loads of lumber come in Saturday, besides props, etc.

The handle factory is buying hickory and will start soon.

Some building is being done, which gives the carpenters work.

I was in Annapolis Wednesday. Our enterprising merchant, Chas. E. Bolch, is getting along nicely with his new home. It will cost $12,000 and is a credit to Annapolis.

John Nation, our lumber inspector, left Sunday for St. Louis. He will inspect lumber in the yards in St. Louis.

Dr. Farr tells me that old man Joe Chilton, 86, will only last a few days. He is the father of Flynn and John Chilton. Later—"Uncle Joe" died Sunday night and was buried in the Chilton cemetery.

J. H. Stevenson and two sons, Glen and Clyde, motored to Poplar Bluff last Friday and report the roads fine. They went by Piedmont, Greenville and Hendrickson.

Mr. Thomson, formerly night operator here, and wife and boys came to Des Arc in their car and returned Friday night. We were certainly glad to see them. We miss them in our church and Sunday School. Their little boys were tickled to death to get back to Des Arc and see their old playmates.

John Howard went to Piedmont Friday and bought a fine Jersey cow. Price, $100.

We were sorry our soldier boys did not turn out better to the Riggs funeral in Ironton last Friday. Geo. Reed is the only one who went from here.

I see that there are forty-five divorce suits in court in Stoddard county. I will be glad when they grant no more divorces. North Carolina and Virginia do not grant them.

The late Rev. H. J. Wray's wife's funeral was held at Lexington. She was the second wife of Rev. Wray, who was buried here several years ago.

Rev. Toney Lewis of Marble Hill will preach in the Baptist church here next Sunday.

J. W. Cooper is working on C. E. Bolch's new house.

I was in Piedmont Friday. Came home in a wagon with James Lewis, who had been there with a load of wheat. We were 4 hours making the trip to Des Arc. The Mill only allowed him one dollar a bushel for his wheat. They will buy a car here this week.

Mrs. John Stevenson made a trip to Farmington last week. ISAAC.

Annapolis News.

Lots of rain the past week and looks like more rain today. Heavy thunder and lightning Saturday night, but very little rain.

Mr. Ira Risher of De Soto was in Annapolis Saturday on his way to Geo. Johnson's, on Sinking Creek. He reports times dull in De Soto, but says he is still getting $4 a day for working in the roundhouse.

Our lead mines are still idle. The opinion seems to be that when they open up a new company will be in charge.

Late crops of all kinds are good. Props, ties and lumber are all the go now and a big demand for ties, but no money.

Walter Henson and wife passed through Annapolis today (Sunday) on their way back to Williamsville.

I understand from his neighbors that L. Eldridge, a World War veteran, living near Vulcan, is in a destitute condition and badly in need of assistance. He is suffering from disease contracted while in the service and ought to have government aid.

C. L. Collins of Sabula and H. Collins drove to Fredericktown in H. Collins' car the past week.

W. Hampton has purchased one of Elmer Lucian's cows, paying $50 therefor.

Sam Moss and John W. Alcorn went to Black river today to hold a meeting in the Mann Settlement.

F. M. Corey, of Collyotte Hollow, in Reynolds county, who is ninety-six years of age, is to be immersed in Black river today. He has been in poor health for the past ten months.

I want to thank the good people for their liberal donations for cleaning our Des Arc cemetery, but I wish to say that there are a few who have not paid a cent nor done any work. It is very ungrateful on their part in not helping us.

My Desire.

P. P. HILBURN.

I find an editor, now and then,
Will print a poem if it's free,
But not a farthing, nor a yen,
Have they ever paid to me.

Verses many I have sent,
Of meter, rhyme, rhyme,
They often came back with "regret"
But never with a dime!

I go on writing, for I must,
But when my humble pen shall fail,
And I am dust, I want it said of me,
"He loved his fellow men."

Have a Definite Purpose.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which gripped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT
